

Amanda Gorman

In 2017, poet and advocate Amanda Gorman was named the first-ever National Youth Poet Laureate. But it was during her performance at the 2021 presidential inauguration that Gorman truly caught the world's attention. Her show-stopping performance of "The Hill We Climb" made Gorman—at age 22—the youngest inaugural poet in US history.